

Forest event at Oskahtak, near Redwater

Date: Saturday June 22, 2013 AND SUNDAY JUNE 23, 2013

Come prepared for any weather and wear old clothes. Please bring a watch.

Location: near Redwater, approx 1 hour NE of Edmonton; 30km NE of Fort Saskatchewan

Terrain: mostly sandhills pine forest interspersed with marshes; overgrown trails

Registration, Beginners' Clinics & Start times: noon - 2pm

Courses Close at 4pm - everyone must report back in by this time, finished or not.

Probable Courses (same courses both days)

1/2	Beginner / family / solo junior course with controls which you can see from paths or from other handrails, such as fences, edge of marshes.
3	Intermediate course/loop, with controls across country
4	short advanced, technically difficult
6	long advanced, technically difficult

Entry fees (for one day or both days)

Non-members	$15 per map, which may be shared. Fee includes SPORTident electronic timing card, plus, if necessary, compass and whistle. (deposit of driver's permit required for rentals)
Members	$10 per map, which may be shared. Fee includes SPORTident electronic timing card, plus, if necessary, compass and whistle. (deposit of driver's permit required for rentals)
	Additional maps for groups going out together on the same course $5
	Map for junior member going out on his/her own $5
Whistle	Compulsory - any kind will do. A group needs only one between them.
Watch	Strongly advised - we have loaners if you forget to bring one

Organiser: Greg Yarkie COF certified Level 300 official

More information: Marilyn <marilyno@shaw.ca> 780 455 1916

/directions over

Directions

Referring to a provincial road map, take Hwys 21 and/or 15 past Fort Saskatchewan to Secondary Highway 830.

Turn north (left) onto SH 830.

At the end of SH 830 at the T junction, turn west onto Hwy 38 and go across the Vinca bridge over the N Saskatchewan River.

Approximately 1.5 km after crossing the bridge, turn right (east) onto Victoria Trail.

1.8km along Victoria Trail, turn left (north) onto RR210A.

Make another left immediately and then follow the orienteering signs.

